

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Delia Culp, who is retiring after serving over 33 years with the state of South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation; and,

Whereas, Delia began her career in state government in 1983 with the Sioux Falls local office as the receptionist, later became an employment representative and continued with her transition to the Aberdeen local office where she later advanced to an employment specialist; and,

Whereas, Delia has performed a wide variety of jobs and tasks during her tenure including reception and general knowledge of Department of Labor programs to the public, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance program, Employment Services, Re-employment Services, and Short-Term Labor program, and with Delia's knowledge and experience, she has helped to provide a steady foundation for the Division; and,

Whereas, On June 8, 2016, Delia is retiring to spend more time with her family and friends, traveling, gardening, and time with her "Happy Hookers" fishing club; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
